Correction: at 18:02, dropout rate (p) value should be large and NOT small when we are overfitting with many weights and few data points.

NOTE: Sorry for the confusion as I seem to have use 'p' as dropout rate for some part of the video and 'p' as the keep-prob at other places.